CHRISTMAS EVE • DEC. 24, 2013

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT • CAROLS AND COMMUNION
5 p.m. – the story of Christ's birth will unfold through carols and a children's pageant. Although designed with children in mind, people of all ages will enjoy this worship experience.

TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE WITH HOLY COMMUNION AND CAROLS BY CANDLELIGHT
10 p.m. – the service will begin in the stillness and darkness of the night. The joyous sounds of handbells and pipe organ will break the silence, inviting all to experience the spirit of Christmas through carols, prayers and readings. A sermon relevant to life will be offered. The Adult Choir will sing "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."
